Hockey Ireland Coronavirus (COVID-19) UPDATE regarding Government Announcement regarding changes to restrictions.

23rd December 2020

The following changes have been made to the Hockey Ireland Covid-19 guidelines given the latest announcement on Covid-19 restrictions made by the Irish (ROI) Government.

Please note: These restrictions do not apply to Irish Senior International squads under Sport Ireland's elite exemption.

As per Level 5 guidelines with the current adjustments announced on the 22nd of December, adults and children in ROI continue to be allowed train outdoors where training is contained to non-contact pods of maximum 15 (including coaches/managers) and socially distanced at all time.

Competition/matches may not be played at any level.
