Hockey Ireland Coronavirus (COVID-19) UPDATE regarding Government Announcement on Changes to COVID-19 Restrictions.

30th December 2020

The following changes have been made to the Hockey Ireland Covid-19 guidelines given the latest announcement on Covid-19 restrictions made by the Irish (ROI) Government.

Under Level 5, individual training only is permitted, within a 5km radius of an individual's home. No matches are to take place.

The exemptions to this are Elite sports*.

Elite sports are permitted to continue behind closed doors. For Hockey this has been defined as the National Senior Men's and Women's Programmes. They are permitted to train and play behind closed doors.

*Please note: This category has been defined by the 'Return to Sport Expert Group' which has been established by the ROI government to provide guidance to Ireland's sporting bodies to prepare for the phased return to sporting activity.

Competition/matches may not be played at any level.
