

If you get this error, it means you have clicked on new club and not the club you are registered with.

Please go back and click on the Club you are registered with.

Even if you are transferring, you need to register with the club you are transferring from. Once your transfer has gone through, your membership will move to the new club.

1. Choose Type 	2. Basic Info	3. Questions	4. Products	5. Payment
--	----------------------	--------------	-------------	------------

A member with the same name and date of birth already exists. Your registration cannot be processed because:

-  1. The email address associated with your profile is not the same email address you are using to register and will require your club administrator to amend this for you.
- 2. You have played previously for another club and require a clearance.

Please provide your personal details below followed by ticking which type/s of membership you are registering for this season.

IMPORTANT: Please ensure you select ALL appropriate member types applicable to you, i.e. if you are a Player and a Coach please tick BOTH options
