HELEN BUCKLEY

INTERNATIONAL CAREER: 1959 - 1971

INTERNATIONAL CAPS: 27

POSITION: FORWARD

Helen Buckley was an outstanding forward for Leinster and Ireland in the 1960s.

A very versatile player, Buckley was equally proficient at left inner, right inner or on the left wing. Buckley possessed explosive acceleration and scored many goals by quickly pouncing on a loose ball and converting. She went on to coach the Irish team from 1976 to 1978, during which time Ireland won the Triple Crown (1977) for the first time since 1950.
