JOAN O'REILLY

INTERNATIONAL CAREER : 1949 - 1959

INTERNATIONAL CAPS : 34

POSITION : RIGHT WING

Joan O'Reilly was one of the true legends of Irish women's hockey in the 1950's collecting 34 caps in a glittering ten year international career. An attacking player with lightening speed and flair, Joan was known for the quality and timing of her crosses, many of which resulted in Irish goals. She was a member of the Triple Crown winning Irish team of 1950 and a member of the Irish touring team that toured South Africa (1950), Folkestone (1953), USA (1954) and Amsterdam (1959). Joan also went on to become an international umpire after her playing retirement.
