

Irish Hockey

HALL OF FAME

JOHN A. DOUGLAS

INTERNATIONAL CAREER: 1971– 1978

INTERNATIONAL CAPS: 35

POSITION: FORWARD

John Douglas made his debut into International hockey in 1972 as a member of the highly successful Irish squad that won the Santander International Trophy defeating Great Britain in the final.

As well as being an innate reader of the game, he possessed a wonderful sense of position and anticipation.

He was also a member of the touring party to South Africa in 1973 and played in the legendary Irish team that competed in the Men's World Cup Finals in Buenos Aires in 1978.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 2008