NORA SMITH

INTERNATIONAL CAREER: 1961 - 1967

INTERNATIONAL CAPS: 20

POSITION: HALF BACK

An outstanding centre half for Leinster and Ireland, Nora Smith had a wonderful sense of position and anticipation that enabled her to read the game effortlessly. An outstanding passer of the ball, her stamina and work rate on the pitch was exceptional. During her international career spanning six years and 20 caps, she was a member of the touring team to the USA in 1963 and Germany in 1967. After retiring, Nora went on to be the first coach of the Irish team from 1973 to 1976.
