

Appendix 4 – Safeguarding Roles & Responsibilities

Children’s Officer

The appointment of Children’s Officers in hockey clubs is an essential element in the creation of a quality atmosphere. They act as a resource with regard to children’s issues.

In summary Children’s Officers should work with others on the club committee to ensure current policies in relation to young people, check that all activities are safe and fun, and inform adults of how to deal with any concerns that may arise in relation to the protection of children and young people.

Club Children’s Officers should be child centered in focus and have as the primary aim the establishment of a child centered ethos within the hockey club. S/he is the link between the children and the adults in the club. They also take responsibility for monitoring and reporting to the Club Management Committee on how club policy impacts on young people and Hockey Leaders.

The Children’s Officer should be a member of or have access to, the Club Management Committee and should be introduced to the young people in an appropriate forum.

The role of the Club Children’s Officer should be:

To promote awareness of safeguarding guidelines within the hockey club, among young members and their parents/guardians. This could be achieved by:- the distribution of information leaflets, the establishment of a junior specific notice board, regular information meetings for the young people and their parents/guardians

- To influence policy and practice within the hockey club in order to prioritise children’s needs
- Establish contact with the National and Regional Children’s Officers across Hockey Ireland and the Provinces.
- To ensure that children know how to make concerns known to appropriate adults or agencies.
- To encourage the appropriate involvement of parents/ guardians in the club activities
- To act as an advisory resource to Hockey Leaders on best practice in youth hockey
- To monitor changes in membership and follow up any unusual dropout, absenteeism or club transfers by children or hockey leaders
- To ensure that the children have a voice in the running of their hockey club and ensure that there are steps young people can take to express concerns about their hockey activities/ experiences.
- Establish communication with other branches of the club, e.g. facilitate parent’s information sessions at the start of the season
- Keep records on each member on file, including youth members, their contact numbers and any special needs of the child that should be known to leaders
- Ensure each member signs an annual membership form that must include the signing up to the code of conduct for hockey leaders and children and young people.
- The CCO must undertake the necessary training i.e. Safeguarding 1 & 2 (Rol) or Safeguarding Children and Young People and Designated Safeguarding Officer (NI).
- Coordinated the completion of any safeguarding audit require and review the club safeguarding risk assessment.
- Ensure that the club rules and regulations include:
 - complaints, disciplinary and appeals procedures.
 - an anti-bullying policy.
 - safety statement.
 - rules in relation to traveling with children.
 - supervision and recruitment of leaders.
