

CHARTER

Total respect is about making sure that everyone involved in Hockey in Ireland has a safe, positive and enjoyable experience.

Hockey Ireland reminds all members of our community to always show total respect. How we treat each other says everything about us and our sport, and the only behaviour we should practice and tolerate is Total Respect.

Respect

Accepting others for who they are, creating an inclusive environment.

Fair Play

Accepting the rules and the spirit behind the rules.

Sportsmanship

Showing integrity and respect for your opponents, officials and spectators.

Teamwork

Working together for the team, both on and off the pitch.

Excellence

Striving for improvement and doing your best, not just winning.

Discipline

Applying the rules of the game and being honest and fair.

Integrity

Consistently adhering to strong moral and ethical principles.

Enjoyment

Have fun and enjoy being part of a team.

OUR COMMITMENT
